

SEE QWEST AT THE CHANNEL PARTNER CONFERENCE!

BOSTON – AUGUST 18-20, 2008

BOOTH 2039

Stop by our booth and learn more about our commitment to customer satisfaction. Sign up for a one-on-one meeting with Qwest executives who are available to answer your questions about becoming a Qwest Business Partner – and how to “Take Your Business to the Next Level.”

Qwest® Business Partners represent an industry-leading portfolio of voice, data, Internet and managed solutions to meet customers’ most demanding communications requirements

Don’t miss the MPLS panel discussion where Martin Capurro, Qwest’s Director of Global Data & IP Product Management is participating. His team has Product Management responsibility for iQ Networking, the Qwest enterprise data offer that integrates common WAN technologies, Managed Services & Security into a logical portfolio of offers.

Stop by and say hello to us in booth 2039!
