

Q.Marketplace 2009, January 21 – 23

The invitations to attend Q.Marketplace 2009 have been delivered. Here are some of the great enhancements we are making to the Q.Marketplace program for '09:

MORE product and sales training

MORE interactive opportunities with product management

MORE peer-to-peer networking sessions

Plus there'll be a few surprises along the way...

so don't forget to mark your calendars. If you haven't received your invitation yet, please contact the Qwest Travel Team at (866) 832-2047 or via e-mail qwesttravelteam@carlson.com.

Note: To receive the invitation, you must have a profile in the Q.Marketplace online tool that is marked to receive communications from Qwest.

See you in January!
